23-1A-3010 Purpose

To aid in better understanding the City of Austin's process for land use planning and development, this division provides an overview of the different categories of decisions and applications established by the Land Development Code. Detailed requirements for different categories of decisions are established in Section 23-2A-1030 (Overview of Legislative and Administrative Approvals) and other provisions of this Title.

23-1 A-3020 Classification of Applications and Decisions

(A) Legislative Decisions

(1) General Characteristics

- (a) Legislative decisions are decisions that establish or change the City's policies and rules governing the use and development of land. They involve the exercise of broad discretion and are typically based on general considerations of public policy, such asincluding, but not limited to, furthering the goals of the Comprehensive Plan or preserving public health, safety, and_ welfare.
- (b) Only the Councilcity council may approve legislative decisions, which cannot be appealed or varied and may only be amended or repealed by the Councilcouncil. The Councilcity council may- not delegate its authority to make a legislative decision and, in general, cannot be required to take legislative action. The Councilcouncil must, at a minimum, hold a public hearing and receive a report from the Land Use Commission before making a legislative decision_except where otherwise authorized by this Title.
- (2) Types of Legislative Decisions. Examples of legislative decisions include:
 - (a) Adopting or amending the text of this Title;
 - (b) Adopting the City's official zoning map and approving applications to change the zoning classification of individual properties, commonly referred to as a "rezonere" or "zoning amendment";

- (c) Approving a Development Agreement or a land use plan in the City's extraterritorial jurisdiction; and
- (d) Amending the Comprehensive Plan, including a Neighborhood Plan or other Small Area Plan.

I

(B)Quasi-Judicial Decisions

(1) General Characteristics

- (a) A quasi-judicial decision is a City decision that:
 - (i) Applies discretionary approval criteria to a development application;
 - (ii) Adjudicates the rights of individual parties under this Title; or
 - (iii) Decides an appeal of an administrative decision.
- (b) A quasi-judicial decision involves the exercise of discretion on the part of the decision-maker and in most cases, may be subject to conditions. Quasi-judicial decisions require a public hearing and may require findings in support of the decision. They involve the exercise of considerable discretion on the part of the decision-maker and in most cases, may be subject to- conditions.
- (c) A quasi-judicial decision is usually made by an appointed board or commission, but in some cases, may be subject to final approval by the Council or may be delegated to the City Managercity manager. Members of a decision-making body may be required to refrain from discussing matters subject to a quasi-judicial decision outside of a public meeting regarding the matter, if expressly provided by this Title.
- (2) Types of Quasi-Judicial Decisions. Examples of quasi-judicial decisions include:
 - (a) A decision by the Board of Adjustment on an application for a zoning Variance or Special Exception; under Division 23-2F-1 (Variances and Special Exceptions);
 - (b) A decision by the Land Use Commission on an application for an Environmental Variance, a Minor Use Permit, under Division 23-3D-2 (Exceptions and Variances) or a Conditional Use Permit; under Section 23-4B-1020 (Conditional Use Permit);
 - (c) A decision by a board or commission, or by the City-Council, on an administrativeAdministrative Appeal; under Article 23-21 (Appeals); and
 - (d) A decision by the City-Council under Division 23-2F-3 (Limited Adjustments) or Section 23-2K-2040 (Project Consent -Agreements).

(C) Administrative Decisions

(1) General Characteristics

- (a) An administrative decision is a City decision by the City that applies specific standards or requirements toof this Title or other applicable law to the review of a development application. Most administrative decisions require the exercise of limited discretion.
- (b) The authority to make administrative decisions is delegated to City departments and to boards and commissioncommissions, as provided in Article 23-1B (Responsibility for Administration). A public hearing is required for an administrative decision by a board or commission.
- (2) Types of Administrative Decisions. Examples of administrative decisions include:
 - (a) A decision by the Director on an application for:
 - (i) A Site Plan or Minor Use Permit;
 - (ii) A Minor Adjustment or Alternative Equivalent Compliance; or

(iii) A Vested Rights Petition;

- (b) A decision by the Building Official or Director on an application for:
 - (i) A Building Permit or a Trade Permit; or
 - (ii) A Certificate of Occupancy or Compliance; and
- (c) A decision by the Land Use Commission on an application for a preliminary plan, final plat, or subdivision construction plan; and Preliminary Plan, Final Plat, or Subdivision Construction Plan; and
- (d) A revision or correction to a pending application.

23-1 A-3030 Rules Governing Decisions

- (A) Order of Process. If proposed development requires more than one application under this Title, an applicant must obtain the approvals in the order specified by Section 23-2A- 2010 (Order of Process).
- (B) Burden to Show Compliance. An applicant requesting approval of a development application must demonstrate that the application meets all applicable requirements.
- (C) Revised Development Application. An amended or revised development application is classified the same as the initial application and is reviewed according to the same level of discretion as the initial application.
- (D) Advisory Decisions. If a board or commission makes a recommendation on a decision _to be made by the Councilcity council, the board or commission acts in the same capacity as the Councilcouncil and may recommend any action within the Council's council's authority.

Contents

23-1B-4010 Neighborhood Plan Contact Team

23-1B-4010 Neighborhood Plan Contact Team1

23-1 B-4010 Neighborhood Plan Contact Team

- (A) The Director shall initiate the formation of a Neighborhood Plan Contact Team.
- (B) The Neighborhood Plan Contact Team shall to the greatest extent practicable include at least one representative from each of the following groups within a neighborhood plan area:
 - (1) Property owners;
 - (2) Residential renters;
 - (3) Business owners; and
 - (4) Neighborhood organization members owning or renting property within the neighborhood plan areaNeighborhood Plan Area.
- (C) Representatives shall to the greatest extent possible be drawn from the group of persons involved in the development of the neighborhood planNeighborhood Plan.
- (D) The Neighborhood Plan Contact Team shall annually submit a list of its officers and members, including individual contact information and applicable membership category under Subsection (B), to the Director.
- (E) The Neighborhood Plan Contact Team shall submit new bylaws or changes in existing bylaws to the Director. The bylaws shall address roles and responsibilities, boundaries, membership, decision-making, meetings and meeting notification, officers and duties, amendments to the bylaws, finances, and conflicts of interest. The bylaws shall be consistent with the standardized bylaws template and instructions provided by the Director.
- (F) Before the date on which the Planning Commission is scheduled to consider a proposed neighborhood plan amendmentNeighborhood Plan Amendment, the Neighborhood Plan Contact Team may submit a letter to the Director stating its recommendation on the proposed amendment. The Neighborhood Plan Contact Team shall also identify any conflict of interest as defined in the bylaws of the Neighborhood Plan Contact Team.

- (G) Neighborhood Plan Contact Teams shall have dispute resolution as follows:
 - (1) Filing Complaints. A person who meets the membership requirements described under Subsection (B)-) and believes that the Neighborhood Plan Contact Team has violated the provisions of this Section may file with the Director a request to have the Director investigate and mediate the complaint. Such complaints shall be in writing _and shall identify the Neighborhood Plan Contact Team alleged to be violating the provisions of this section. All complaints must be filed within 45 days following the occurrence of an alleged violation.
 - (2) Investigation. The Director shall review with the charging party the allegations contained within the complaint and, if warranted based on the requirementsstandards of this chapterChapter, shall conduct a prompt and full investigation of the matter stated in the complaint through interviews with the charging party, contact team officers, and through review of all available documentation. The Director shall determine, in writing, whether dispute resolution is warranted within 14 days of receiving a complaint and shall render a written report identifying issues to be addressed through dispute resolution within 28 days of receiving the complaint.
 - (3) Informal Dispute Resolution. If after investigation it is determined that there is reasonable cause to believe that dispute resolution is warranted, the Director shall endeavor to eliminate any such alleged violations by informal methods of conference, conciliation, and persuasion. All informal dispute resolution and determinations of the Director must be completed within 30 days after the Director provides the written report.
 - (4) Formal Dispute Resolution. If, after determining that there is reasonable cause to believe that dispute resolution is warranted, and the Director is unable to secure from the respondent an acceptable conciliation agreement, the Director shall present a report to the Planning Commission within 30 days of completing the informal dispute resolution. If after review of the report the Planning Commission agrees with the report of the Director, the Planning Commission may recommend a more formal mediation or dispute resolution process. The Planning Commission shall set a deadline for the completion of formal mediation based on the complexity and circumstances of a specific case and shall identify a neutral third party to conduct the dispute resolution process.

(5) Remedy

- (a) In cases where the informal and formal dispute resolution processes initiated by the City are unable to secure from the respondent an acceptable conciliation agreement, the Planning Commission may recommend that the Director and the City discontinue recognition of the Neighborhood Plan Contact Team in compliance with the provisions of this chapterChapter until a conciliation agreement acceptable to the Planning Commission is reached.
- (b) In the event the City discontinues recognition of a Neighborhood Plan Contact Team, special designation of the organization as a Neighborhood Plan Contact Team will be removed from the City of Austin Community Registry, the Neighborhood Plan Contact Team will no longer be granted the authority to initiate Neighborhood Plan amendments, and the Neighborhood Plan Contact Team will no longer have access to any special resources or authority through the City based on its status as a Neighborhood Plan Contact Team.

- (c) If recognition of a Neighborhood Plan Contact Team is discontinued for more than six months, the Director may take action to initiate a new Neighborhood Plan Contact Team for the planning area under the provisions of City Code Section 25- 1-805(A) through (C). In the event that the Director takes action to initiate a new Neighborhood Plan Contact Team, the initial officers of the new Neighborhood Plan Contact Team may not have served as officers of the previous Neighborhood Plan Contact Team at the time when recognition was discontinued.
- (6) Appeal. Charging parties and respondents may appeal the determination of the Director and of the Planning Commission under this subsectionSubsection to the City Council. Actions that are appealable include the Director's determination that dispute resolution is warranted; findings/determinations that come out of the informal dispute resolution process; and discontinuation of recognition of a Neighborhood Plan Contact Team.
